

SAPC e-Note: LAUNCH OF CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD) FOR PHARMACY SUPPORT PERSONNEL

Dear Pharmacy Professional/Stakeholder,

SAPC e-Note: LAUNCH OF CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD) FOR PHARMACY SUPPORT PERSONNEL

The South African Pharmacy Council excited to announce that Pharmacy Support Personnel (Pharmacist Assistants (Basic), Pharmacist's Assistants (Post-Basic), and Pharmacy Technicians) will soon be afforded the opportunity to participate in and record Continuing Professional Development (CPD) activities. In preparation for this milestone, the Office of the Registrar has finalised development of the CPD online platform, which will be launched at a webinar to be hosted on Tuesday, 9 June 2026.

Council invites Pharmacy Support Personnel, all other interested stakeholders, to attend the Pharmacy Support Personnel (PSP) CPD Launch Webinar to be held as per the following details:

Dates: Tuesday, 09 June 2026

Time: 19h00 – 20h00

|------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Microsoft Teams | https://bit.ly/PSPCPDWebinar                             |
| YouTube         | https://www.youtube.com/@OfficialSAPC/live |

The webinar will introduce PSPs to the CPD Portal, explain the CPD cycle, CPD requirements, and much more.

Once launched, the PSP CPD Portal will be made available to all PSPs to enable them to familiarise themselves with the system and to submit practice CPD entries in anticipation of Council announcing the implementation date for PSPs through board notice, in line with the Regulations relating to Continuing Professional Development.
