¹ SAQA is a statutory body established in terms of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) Act, 67 of 2008. Amongst other functions, SAQA evaluates foreign qualifications to determine their status and authenticity, as well as their comparability with relevant South African qualifications and recognition in terms of the South African NQF.

SAQA'S MISSION

"To ensure the development and implementation of a National Qualifications Framework which contributes to the full development of each learner and to the social and economic development of the nation at large"
