

SAPC e-Note: FUTURE PHARMACIST AWARD – NATIONAL PIONEER PHARMACY AWARDS CATEGORY SPOTLIGHT

Dear Pharmacy Professional/Stakeholder,

SAPC e-Note: FUTURE PHARMACIST AWARD – NATIONAL PIONEER PHARMACY AWARDS CATEGORY SPOTLIGHT

Are you currently registered as a student (Bachelor of Pharmacy), a Pharmacist Intern or are you a current Master's degree student or recent graduate?

The Future Pharmacist Award is awarded to a final year student/Pharmacist Intern or Master's student or recent graduate who demonstrates a passion for the pharmacy profession, primarily through academic achievement (4th year student), through workplace ethics and patient care excellence (Pharmacist Intern) or meaningful pharmaceutical research (Master's student or recent graduate).

Submitted nominations should meet the following criteria:

- Registered with the SAPC;
- Completed Online Nomination Form;
- No recent finding (within the past five (5) years) against the nominee by the Committee of Formal Inquiry of Council and no pending disciplinary case before that Committee.
- Electronic ID photo in .jpeg format (300dpi)
- Brief CV (not more than 150 words) (Content: Brief history of the nominee with a clear description of outstanding achievements, contributions and/or service excellence.)
- For 4th year final year student or Master's degree student or recent graduate, a letter from the Head of School of Pharmacy or designee verifying the student's consistent academic achievement and performance.
- For a Pharmacist Intern, a recommendation letter verifying the interns performance from the Responsible Pharmacist.
- Substantive evidence of achievement in three (3) or more of the five (5) criteria listed below, in the form of a report that does not exceed two (2) pages, must be provided to support the nomination:
 - professional advocacy;
 - public health advocacy;
 - student/civic leadership;
 - pharmaceutical service delivery; and/or
 - effective teamwork.
